

3. Převádějte do trpného rodu.

- | | |
|--|---|
| a) They don't accept credit cards here. | f) He describes the place beautifully in this poem. |
| b) Most teachers avoid the topic. | g) They grow coffee mainly in Africa and Central America. |
| c) Why do so many people collect stamps? | h) They need our help now more than ever before. |
| d) What do they eat with it? | i) Why do they never notice my hard work? |
| e) What do they eat it with? | j) Who pays them? |

4. Poslouchejte a převádějte z rodu činného do trpného.

Vzor: (nahrávka: They don't allow smoking here.) > Smoking isn't allowed here.

CD3/23

- | | |
|--|---|
| a) How do you spell it? | f) But don't they sell them in pairs? |
| b) They don't accept my views. | g) They simply don't allow it. |
| c) A lot of students make that mistake. | h) We teach both English and French here. |
| d) How often do they change the colour? | i) They usually explain that in the manual. |
| e) They recommend this method for beginners. | j) Several local schools use our free internet service. |

5. Doplňte vhodná slovesa v minulém čase a trpném rodě.

add bring cover design do fight give help hire hurt leave respect

- a) Most of the paintings _____ to the collection in the early 20th century.
 b) Schweitzer _____ as a doctor, a philosopher and a musician.
 c) Fortunately nobody _____ in the accident.
 d) The stolen car _____ by the side of the road.
 e) And then the teacher explained why the Battle of Hastings _____.
 f) The palace _____ by one of the country's greatest architects.
 g) Potatoes _____ to Europe from Latin America.
 h) Everything _____ in dust.
 i) Thirty waiters _____ for the hundredth anniversary celebration dinner.
 j) A thousand pounds and a gold clock _____ to the winner.
 k) When Pam returned to work after her illness she _____ by kind colleagues and friends.
 l) Nobody knows how these things _____ in the past.

6. Převeďte do trpného rodu.

- a) She described the house perfectly in her first novel.
 b) They booked a special car for the director.
 c) A millionaire collector bought the composer's diaries.
 d) The police closed the shopping centre.
 e) No one properly explored the area until the late 19th century.
 f) He painted most of his pictures in Provence.
 g) They decorated the room with flowers.
 h) They drank more than fifty bottles of wine at the wedding.
 i) The sudden change affected us all.
 j) They did all the work by lunchtime.

7. Poslouchejte a převeďte do trpného rodu.

Vzor: (nahrávka: They did it straight away.) > It was done straight away.

CD3/24

- | | |
|---|---|
| a) Everyone loved and admired her. | f) They called him three times in the night. |
| b) They built the castle in the 13th century. | g) Most of Mrs Hardy's pupils disliked her. |
| c) Unfortunately he never finished his last symphony. | h) They chose Mike as the best man for the job. |
| d) They began the project in 1999. | i) The police followed them for several weeks. |
| e) One of Joe's assistants drove the car. | j) They painted the room blue and yellow. |

3. Rewrite using the passive.

- | | |
|--|--|
| a) Credit cards are not accepted here. | f) The place is described beautifully in this poem. |
| b) The topic is avoided by most teachers. | g) Coffee is grown mainly in Africa and Central America. |
| c) Why are stamps collected by so many people? | h) Our help is needed now more than ever before. |
| d) What is eaten with it? | i) Why is my hard work never noticed? |
| e) What is it eaten with? | j) Who are they paid by? |

4. Listen and convert from active to passive.

- | | |
|---|--|
| a) How is it spelt? | f) But aren't they sold in pairs? |
| b) My views aren't accepted. | g) It's simply not allowed. |
| c) That mistake is made by a lot of students. | h) Both English and French are taught here. |
| d) How often is the colour changed? | i) That's usually explained in the manual. |
| e) This method is recommended for beginners. | j) Our free internet service is used by several local schools. |

5. Insert a suitable verb in the past simple passive.

- a) Most of the paintings were added to the collection in the early 20th century.
 b) Schweitzer was respected as a doctor, a philosopher and a musician.
 c) Fortunately nobody was hurt in the accident.
 d) The stolen car was left by the side of the road.
 e) And then the teacher explained why the Battle of Hastings was fought.
 f) The palace was designed by one of the country's greatest architects.
 g) Potatoes were brought to Europe from Latin America.
 h) Everything was covered in dust.
 i) Thirty waiters were hired for the hundredth anniversary celebration dinner.
 j) A thousand pounds and a gold clock were given to the winner.
 k) When Pam returned to work after her illness she was helped by kind colleagues and friends.
 l) Nobody knows how these things were done in the past.

6. Rewrite using the passive.

- a) The house was described perfectly in her first novel.
 b) A special car was booked for the director.
 c) The composer's diaries were bought by a millionaire collector.
 d) The shopping centre was closed by the police.
 e) The area was not properly explored until the late 19th century.
 f) Most of his pictures were painted in Provence.
 g) The room was decorated with flowers.
 h) More than fifty bottles of wine were drunk at the wedding.
 i) We were all affected by the sudden change.
 j) All the work was done by lunchtime.

7. Listen and convert from active to passive.

- | | |
|--|--|
| a) She was loved and admired by everyone. | f) He was called three times in the night. |
| b) The castle was built in the 13th century. | g) Mrs Hardy was disliked by most of her pupils. |
| c) Unfortunately his last symphony was never finished. | h) Mike was chosen as the best man for the job. |
| d) The project was begun in 1999. | i) They were followed by the police for several weeks. |
| e) The car was driven by one of Joe's assistants. | j) The room was painted blue and yellow. |

